President's Report

August 2016

Greetings Brothers & Sisters,

Anyone who has not yet received a phone call or door knock concerning this year's election? I have had 6 people at my door so far – and it's only the middle of August. I did sign a request for an absentee ballot, my vote will be in before October.

Donald Trump has the worst favorability rating ever for any major party presidential candidate - and the second worst belongs to Hillary Clinton. Trump bought and bullied his way to the top spot. Now many in his own party are backing away from him because of his outrageous statements. Even though Bernie Sanders won more delegates in the caucuses and primaries, the super delegates decided that Hillary Clinton was a better candidate for us to consider.
